Teen Thought

You just came off being grounded for a month because you've broken trust with your folks. How many people have been affected by your foolishness? What is required for you to restore trust? Now re-read and discuss vv 2 & 4.

Tips for Teaching

Ask if their parents believe them when they tell something, then ask why. Assure your children that you want to trust them and expect them to be trustworthy. Ask what they are allowed to do now they couldn't do when younger. (Perhaps you can use the story of the "little boy who cried wolf")
