

1. What did Paul pass on as of first importance? _____
2. Why did he stress the appearances of Christ after the resurrection? _____
3. What teaching had spread at Corinth? (v12) _____
4. "If only for this _____ we have _____ in Christ, we are to be _____ more than all _____"
5. How does the resurrection of Jesus connect with your victory over death? _____

6. What difference does that make in regard to your hope? _____ To your motive for life? _____
7. "Don't be _____ bad _____ corrupts _____"
8. What practical problem were the Corinthians having regarding belief in the resurrection? (v35) _____
9. What analogy did Paul use to deal with the concern? _____
10. In the end who wins? _____
11. Write a prayer of thanks and praise for what the hope of resurrection means to you.
(Maybe the class can end with several being read)

Memory Verse

"Bad company corrupts good character" 1 Corinthians 15:33

Teen Thought

Where do you fit into these statements? "Do not be deceived." "Bad company corrupts good morals." Discussion may then turn to the afterlife.

Tips for Teaching

Parents or teachers may want to focus on the idea of Jesus coming back and finding you or your family members involved with "bad company" or immoral activities. This idea can help us become sober minded (v 34) regarding decisions about friends and activities.

Additional Scriptures:

Exodus 23:2; Psalm 1:1; Proverbs 4:14; 24:1; John 5:28 & 29; 11:1-44; 1 Corinthians 16; 2 Corinthians 6:14