TO CHALLENGE TEEN THOUGHT

The desire to win other's approval is a natural one. Find examples in the scriptures and in life where people have used religion to win this approval.

TIPS FOR TEACHING PARENTS

Desiring praise is a part of human nature, for children as well as adults; the issue in Jesus' teaching is: do we seek praise from God or people? Children want and need to be praised by parents when they do well. Let them know that you are proud of them when they do right. Tell them that God sees what they do even when mommy and daddy don't, and that God is also proud of them for doing right.
