A close-up, high-contrast image of a human eye. The iris is replaced by a detailed, colorful image of the Earth, showing blue oceans, green landmasses, and white clouds. Overlaid on the eye in large, bold, white, sans-serif capital letters is the word "WWAR". The letters are slightly shadowed, giving them a three-dimensional appearance as if they are floating in front of the eye. The background is a soft, out-of-focus white, emphasizing the eye and the text.

denying God

For the wrath of God
is revealed from heaven
against all ungodliness and
unrighteousness of men,
who by their
unrighteousness suppress the truth.

ROMANS
1:18

For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

ROMANS
1:19-20

For although they knew God,
they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him...

becoming fools

For although they knew God,
they did not honor him as God
or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise,
they became fools...

ROMANS
1:21-22

When we refuse to honor God as God...

(1) We lose our ability
to perceive reality correctly

When we refuse to honor
God as God...

(2) Our hearts become
darkened, hardened

Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity.

Eph
4:17-19

Eph
4:17-19

Claiming to be wise, they became fools,
and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and creeping things.

ROMANS
1:22-23

impurity, to the dishonoring

ROMANS
1:24-25

Therefore God gave them up ←
in the lusts of their hearts...

For this reason God gave them ←
up to dishonorable passions....

And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave ← them up to a debased mind...

ROMANS
1:24-28

God handed them over to:

(1) impurity, dishonoring their bodies

(2) the lust of their hearts
in impurity

(3) a debased mind,
what ought not to
be done

Our bodies designed by God,

We are to use them as God
designed.

worshipping self

When we refuse to worship
God (as he is), we do not worship nothing.

We replace God with something else.

Therefore God gave them up
in the lusts of their hearts to
impurity, to the dishonoring
of their bodies among themselves,

ROMANS
1:24-25

because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever!
Amen.

ROMANS
1:24-25

We have replaced God with self!

We think crass idolatry is nonsense!

Because it is.

Our idolatry is just as absurd.

In fact, even worse.

THE EMPEROR'S NEW CLOTHES

By Hans Christian Andersen
Illustrated by Virginia Lee Burton

The Emperor's New Clothes

There was once an Emperor who was so fond of clothes, he hardly thought about anything else. He ignored important business and avoided his advisors. He preferred to spend his days in front of a mirror, trying on fancy, frilly shirts and preposterous pantaloons.

There were thousands of people in the streets. Everyone knew about the magic cloth. Everyone knew that only clever people could see it. And everyone saw... nothing.

“Doesn’t the Emperor look wonderful?” they said.

“But he isn’t wearing any clothes!” said a child. “He isn’t wearing anything!”

“Hush,” said her father, but her mother said, “She’s right, you know.” Then someone else said, “The Emperor has no clothes!”

Soon everyone in the street was saying the same thing.
